

From Backstage to Center Stage: A Celebration of Access and Inclusion in the Arts

Scott
MacIntyre

Anita
Hollander

Luca
Patuelli

Marc
Brew

Antoine
Hunter and
Zahna Simon

Zazel-Chavah
O'Garra

Matt
Weihmuller

Arts4All Florida celebrates 40 years as the leading resource on access and inclusion in the arts throughout the state. This musical extravaganza will include dynamic performers that have worked with Arts4All Florida over the years for a reboot that will showcase dance, theatre and music performances by acclaimed artists, all who have a disability. Invited guest performers include:

- American Idol finalist, Scott MacIntyre
- Playwright and Off-Broadway performer, Anita Hollander
- Founder of ILL-Abilities breakdancing crew, Luca Patuelli
- Founder of Urban Jazz Dance Company, Antoine Hunter
- Assistant Director of Urban Jazz Dance Company, Zahna Simon
- Artistic Director and choreographer of Axis Dance Company, Marc Brew
- Founder and Artistic Director of ZCO/DANCEPROJECT, Zazel-Chavah O'Garra
- Tampa's own Patel Conservatory instructor and saxophonist, Matt Weihmuller

Additional performers/mentees include Arts4All Florida Young Performer winners and dancers from the USF School of Dance.

Friday, February 25, 2022
7:30 PM

A reception will immediately follow at USF Contemporary Art Museum

Theatre 1-University of South Florida
839 USF Holly Drive, Tampa, FL 33620

Get your tickets at:

<http://s.alchemer.com/s3/2022-From-Backstage-to-Center-Stage>

For all other reasonable accommodations, please email wfinklea@usf.edu

